To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the last Tuesday of October next.

Delinda A. Boynton of Corinth, in said County, respectfully represents that she was married to Daniel H. Boynton, on the seventeenth day of February, 1868, and that since her marriage she has strictly observed all her marriage vows, but that said Daniel H., unmindful of his duties in that respect, has for the last five years treated your libelant with extreme cruelty and neglect, failing wholly to supply her and their children with the necessaries of life, and finally deserting her in the month of December, 1874, leaving her penniless with three children to support, and has not since supplied her with any of the necessaries of life, and that owing to his extremely dissipated habits, cruel treatment and neglect her life has been rendered miserable.

She also alleges that she has borne to him three children, Frederick R. aged nine years, Edith A. aged six years, and George D. aged four years, and that said Daniel H. Boynton is not a suitable person to have the custody of said children.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be decreed between her and her said husband; and that the custody of said children may be given to her. And your Libelant further alleges that though she has made diligent search for her said husband his residence is wholly unknown to her.

(Signed) DELINDA A. BOYNTON.

Sworn to before me this 4th day of August, 1876.

D. F. DAVIS, Justice of the Peace.

STATE OF MAINE.

Boynton, to appear before the Justice of our Supreme Judicial Court, to be holden at Bangor within and for the County of Penobscot, on the last Tuesday of October, A. D. 1876, by publishing an attested copy of said libel and this order thereon, once a week three weeks successively in the Whig and Courier, a newspaper printed in Bangor in our county of Penobscot, the last publication to be thirty days at least prior to said last Tuesday of October next, that he may there and then in our said Court appear and show cause, if any he have, why the prayer of said libelant should not be granted.

STATE NEWS.

Franklin.

The house and barn belonging to John Morrison, of Wilton, were burned Tuesday night. Loss about $1,000; partially insured.

Kennebec.

The Journal says that extensive forest fires are causing a good deal of disturbance, and are spreading quite extensively in Belgrade, in the westerly portion of the town. The dry weather has made the stuff and underbrush in the forests like tinder. On Monday thirty-five farmers were out fighting fire.

The Augusta Journal says: "Fast as ice has been shipped, and it is something unparalleled in the history of the business on the Kennebec, in the last two months, by careful estimate from reliable men engaged in the business, it appears that there are still over one hundred thousands tons to go yet, about half of which is unsold. There remains now little over two months of the shipping season and it is probable that very little will be left. The recent very cold weather has caused shipment at present to slack up considerably, but it will undoubtedly revive again as soon as the large stock now in our large cities is worked off."

Sagadahoc.

The Patten Car Works of Bath have just sent off a train of cars for Canada consisting of one baggage, mail, and express, two second class and two first class; they all have the latest improvements, being fitted with master car builders standard axle, Miller Platform and Smith Vacuum brake. The cars are warmed by Eaton stoves and lighted with Williams, Page and Co. improved car lamps. The cars are all lettered on a crimson ground, Q. M. O. & O., the initials of the "Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa & Occidental Railway."

Somerset.

The house and outbuildings of Mrs. Lary of St. Albans, were burned on Monday forenoon, at about eleven o'clock. The fire caught in the chamber of the ell, and was first discovered bursting out of the roof. It was doubtless caused by a defect in the chimney. Loss about $1,200 and no insurance. Mrs. Lary is about 80 years old and her loss is severe for her.

Waldo.

Ninety gallons of whisky were seized at Belfast last week, on schooner Empire.

M. W. Welch has been elected 2d Lieut of Belfast City Guards.

A large excursion from Waterville and vicinity went through Belfast to the campground last Thursday.

The house of Mrs. W. Pierce, of Belfast, was entered by burglars Thursday morning, and a large quantity of under-garments and other goods taken.

York.

Extensive fires are reported in York county. A large number of men were fighting fire Sunday in the hemlock and pine woods belonging to F. C. Bryant in Saco; and "Buff Plains" in Waterboro and Shapleigh, hundreds of acres in extent have burned over. This is a great blueberry section, and parties out berrying came near being surrounded by fire.

THE KENTUCKY SHOWER OF FLESH.

It appears to be a law of nature that weeds should grow with flowers, tares with corn, and that superstition should almost touch truth. Showers of frogs, of fishes, of bloody rain and snow have frequently occurred. The last sensation, however, is "the fall of flesh in Kentucky," which offers some features of special interest.

In 1537, while Paracelsus was engaged in the production of his "elixir of life," he came across a very strange looking vegetable mass, to which he gave the name of "Nostoc." The want of transportation combined with the perishable nature of the substances fallen, have hitherto prevented a complete and exhaustive examination. The specimens of the "Kentucky shower," reached New York well preserved in glycerine, and it has been comparatively easy to identify the substance and to fix its status. The Kentucky wonder is nothing more or less than the "Nostoc" of the old alchemist. The Nostoc belongs to the confervæ; it consists of translucent, gelatinous bodies, joined together by threadlike tubes or seed bearers. There are about fifty species of this singular plant classified; two or three kinds have even been found in a fossil state. Like other confervæ, the Nostic propagates by self-division, as well as by seeds or spores. When these spores work their way out of the gelatinous envelope they may be wafted by winds here and there, and may be carried great distances. Wherever they may fall, and find congenial soil, dampness or recent ruins, they will thrive and spread very rapidly, and many cases are recorded where they have covered miles of ground in a very few hours with long strings of "Nostoc." On account of this rapidity of growth, people almost everywhere faithfully believe the Nostoc to fall from the clouds, and ascribe it to many mysterious virtues. The plant is not confined to any special locality or climate; sown by a whirlwind, carried by a current of air, in need of moisture only for existence and support, it thrives everywhere. Icebergs afloat in mid ocean have been found covered with it. In New Zealand it is found in large masses of quaking jelly, several feet in circumference, and covering miles of damp soil; and in our own country it may be found in damp woods, on meadows, and on marshy or even gravelly bottoms.

All the Nostocs are composed of a semi-liquid cellulose and vegetable proteine. The edible Nostoc is highly valued in China, where it forms an essential ingredient of the bird-nest soup. The flesh that was supposed to have fallen from the clouds in Kentucky is the flesh-colored Nostoc (N. carneum of the botanist;) the flavor of it approaches the frog or spring chicken legs, and it is greedily devoured by all domestic animals.

Such supposed "showers" are not rare, and are entirely in harmony with natural laws. In the East Indies the same Nostoc is used as an application in ulcers and scrofulous disease, while every nation in the East considers it nourishing and palatable, and uses it even for food when dried by sun and heat.—Leopold Brandeis in Sanitarian.

SOMETHING NEW ABOUT PEARS. Mr. P. T. Quinn tells us the following story in his "Rural Topics," in Scribner for July:

A few years ago, a gentleman living in the suburbs of New York, anxious to have large pear-trees that would bear fruit soon, contracted with a tree agent for some Bartletts, the price of which was fixed at $10 apiece. The trees came in due time and were set out. In two years from the time of planting, they bore a small round russet pear, that hung on the trees until October. About this time, the very same agent made his appearance, and, being reminded of the contract to furnish Bartletts, he asked to be allowed to examine the trees and fruit, the latter still hanging on the trees. He examined both carefully, and suddenly turning toward his victim, said with a stern expression, "Well, sir, when I sold you those trees, I supposed you were a well-read, intelligent man; but now I am of a different opinion." This very singular remark brought forth the query, "Why?" from the owner. "Why!" was the response from the agent, "to think a man of culture at this day and age, who does not know the fact, that a Bartlett tree never bears Bartlett pears the first year." The gentleman admitted his ignorance, and the pedler left, master of the situation. Some weeks after, the victim made inquiry of a neighbor to know if he was aware of this strange phenomenon in horticulture. Since then, this tree agent has not made his appearance in this section of the country.

FRENCH HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY. The French butcher separates the bones from his steaks, and places them where they will do the most good. The housewife orders just enough for each person, and no more; even to the coffee. If a chance visitor drops in, somebody quietly retires and the extra cup is so provided, but nothing extra by carelessness of intention. When the pot has boiled, the handful of charcoal in the little range is extinguished, and waits for another time. No roaring cook stoves and red-hot covers all day long for no purpose but waste. The egg laid to-day costs a little more than the one laid last week. Values are nicely estimated, and the smallest surplus is carefully saved. A thousand little economies are practiced, and it is respectable to practice them. Cooking is an economical as well as sanitary and gustatory science. A French cook will make a franc go as far as an American housewife will make three, and how much further than the American Bridget nobody knows—we should probably be greatly astonished, could the computations be made, how much of the financial, recuperative power of France is owing to her soups and her cheap food—better living after all, than the heavy bread and greasy failures of our culinary ignorance.

DRYING SWEET CORN. Sweet corn may be dried and cooked in winter and spring, and be almost as good as the corn fresh from the garden. In the first place, pick that which is in good condition for the table, put it into a kettle, and scald it by boiling about five minutes, then as soon as cool cut it from the cobs, put it on plates, and dry it in the oven, then put it into paper bags, and it will keep till wanted to cook. Another way is described by a lady as follows: "The corn is gathered at the most suitable state for boiling, not too old nor too green; a thin slice is taken off all round the outside of the ears with a sharp knife, taking off as little as possible, yet cutting the top off from every kernel. Then with the back of the knife the ears are scraped, taking out the inside of the kernels and leaving the skins and hulls on the cobs. The milky mass is then spread on plates, and dried in a quick oven, but not so hot as to scorch it. After it is nearly dried, it is put into thin muslin bags and hung up around the stove until thoroughly dry."

It is almost as funny as Talbot's horse—Eben F Pillsbury, as Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, publishing the law against bribery at elections and warning Democratic town committees to prosecute all Republicans who attempt to corrupt voters! Pillsbury ought to put Mr. Madigan in charge of that department.

The Dover Observer says "A large Republican majority in this State will have untold effect upon other States which soon after follow the Maine election. Piscataquis will undoubtedly roll up her usual majority, as the party appears to be more united at the present time than they have been since 1872."

Orono To-Night.

MR POWERS AND SENATOR BLAINE TO SPEAK—EXCURSION OF THE HAYES AND WHEELER BATTALION.

The excursion train will leave the Exchange street depot at 7 05 P M, returning after the meeting Tickets for the round trip 35 cents Arrangements for the Battalion have been made at reduced rates and members can obtain tickets of the Quartermaster at City Hall before starting

THE OLD ISSUES

While Horatio Seymour is making up his mind whether he will accept a nomination which he has over and over again declared he never would accept, the public will be reminded by his selection of the persistency with which his party make up the issue between the men who were loyal and those who were disloyal to the Nation in its peril As the Republicans nominated Edwin D Morgan, the loyal War Governor of the Empire State the Democrats have characteristically putted against him Horatio Seymour, notorious as the Copperhead Governor of that State, who opposed every measure for suppressing the rebellion and addressed the bloodthirsty draft rioters of 1863 as his "friends"—Wade Hampton in South Carolina, and Horatio Seymour in New York, are the fitting representatives of a party as dangerous to-day as when the former was leading Rebel cavalry and the latter encouraging resistance to the drafts in the anxious days of 1863 The motto of the Democracy now as then, is "Put none but disloyal men on guard The people understand it

FIGURING FOR DONWORTH

The Copperhead organ in this city is figuring to show how the bolt against the Republican candidate for Congress is to divide an overwhelming Republican majority and secure the election of a bitter Democrat to represent this District. Its figures are premature and based on a shadowy foundation, but it rightfully claims the bolting movement as operating obly for the benefit of the Democracy The election of a staunch Republican to represent this District will be due to the failure of the bolting leaders to command a large following The people see as plainly as does the Democratic organ, that a large vote for Oak would only result in the election of Donworth, and the Republicans of the District do not propose to defeat themselves for the benefit of their chuckling enemies As a matter of fact the bolting movement has made no headway, but since its tendency has been made obvious it has rapidly lost sympathy and support There is something beyond personal preference and prejudice involved in this matter and the Republicans of the Fourth District are bound to elect their candidate by a handsome majority Of this fact we have the most gratifying and conclusive evidence from all parts of the three counties Our people are in earnest and recognize the importance of an unbroken Republican delegation in Congress The Fourth District will stand by its colors

THE "STILL HUNT"
TILDEN S BARRELS OF MONEY

The "still hunt" has began in Ohio The Cleveland Leader has caught sight of the "barrel of money and raises the alarm It charges flatly that a special meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee was held at the principal hotel in Put-in Bay last Friday at 10½ o'clock A M, that Mr John G Thompson presided, and that with outside politicians the gathering numbered 45 or 40 persons, that the question under discussion was whether the Democrats of Ohio should accept and use in the campaign a corruption fund of $250 000 from the Democratic clubs and local committees of New York and Philadelphia, to be used in the city districts of Ohio in purchasing votes, that a country member objected to accepting the money, but was over-ruled by the argument that the country could be saved only by the use of money, and that the end justified the means; and that it was finally decided to accept the money and to appoint trustworthy men to receive and put it where it will do the most good in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton and Cincinnati The Leader says it has authority for what it charges, and thereupon addresses some impassioned words to the Republicans of Ohio to force the law against corruption of voters

TALBOT'S HORSE

The Democrats are very tender on the subject of Talbot s "war" horse and very savage upon J, F Snow, Esq, for referring to the animal as a feature of the campaign They should bear in mind, however that it was not Mr. Snow, but Mr Talbot himself, who introduced that animal into the canvass by asking the people of Maine to take notice of that beast as the only evidence he could give of his own loyalty The Democratic candidate voluntarily trotted out that now famous steed and has only himself to blame that he has compelled the people to laugh at him. Talbot will never be able to get away from that "horse"

"I, for one am not willing to transfer the great power of the government from the hands which have held and supported it to the hands still reeking with the blood of its brave defenders I do not stand here to defend everything which the Republican party has done, but when the Democratic party is held up as the party of reform, I am reminded of the decrepid old lion in the fable, who sought to gain by strategy what he could not gain by strength "—President Seelye, of Amherst College, late Independent member of Congress.

Last Fall the Democratic papers raised a furious outcry that Col. Smith's open letter to Gen. Roberts was unjust to the "loyalty of a gallant Union soldier." The General was the representative of Democracy and is still in high favor with that party The party has not sought to repudiate his eulogy of the chief of the Rebel mies, Robert E. Lee, nor have we as yet seen any denial of the correctness of our information that Gen Roberts recently declared that his mistake was in not going in on the side of the Rebels in the war. How is that for Maine Democracy?

WHILE THE HARD-WORKING LOYAL MEN OF THE COUNTRY WERE CHEERFULLY CONTRIBUTING OF THEIR SCANTY MEANS TO UPHOLD THE FLAG OF THE UNION, THE MILLIONAIRE TILDEN WAS DEFRAUDING THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS INCOME TAX.

TILDEN MONEY.

THE BARRELS ROLLING INTO MAINE.

WARNING TO REPUBLICANS.

A member of the editorial staff of the New York Tribune who has been spending a few days in this State viewing the political canvass, makes the following cautionary remarks to Republicans in a letter dated Bangor, the 25th, and published in the Tribune of Tuesday morning

But the Republicans of Maine will be surely disappointed on election day if they expect to roll up a big majority in this State on the 11th of September without making an unusual effort The Democrats have not in reality abandoned the field in Maine, though they would be very glad to have their opponents think so Their apathy is only assumed. GOV TILDEN'S BARREL OF MONEY IS HERE, though its arrival has not been proclaimed from the house-tops, and its contents will be "put where they will do the most good."

What I have said about the tactics of the Democrats of this State is not a matter of inference The work of organization began several weeks ago, and has already been extended to a majority if not to all of the counties of the State In many places the first canvass has already been completed, and the list of absent and doubtful voters made up Nor is this all, in some cases THE MONEY TO PAY THE EXPENSES OF DEMOCRATS WHO ARE WILLING TO COME HOME AND VOTE HAS ALREADY BEEN FORWARDED TO THEM, the number to be brought back to one small town at an expense of $10, each being 10, and to another 11 If this policy is carried out in all the counties and towns in the State, it will involve the expenditure of a very large sum of money

KNOTT OUT OF SIGHT

Mr Proctor Knott's friends spend hours every day at the gentleman's bedside trying to coax him to put his head out from under the quilts "You'll smother," they say, "and besides, what if he is getting well enough to go around making speeches? He's away down in Maine and wont be back here for a month " But the only response is a quivering, tremulous motion of the bed clothes and a nervous tucking of the quilts more closely around the imprisoned head, as though unseen fingers were gathering in the fresh grip on them From the Burlington, Iowa, Hawkeye

THE GRAND RALLY AT CALAIS The Opening Rally at Calais on Tuesday night proves to have been one of the most notable events in the politics of that city Messrs Blaine and Kasson were met on the cars at Moore s Mills by Hon W J Corthell and F H Boardman, Esq of Calais, and accompanied to St Stephen, where the Calais Band greeted them with music and escorted them to the Hotel in Calais At the request of the speakers the meeting was held in doors At 7 30 P M the Band escorted the speakers to St Croix Hall, and when they appeared on the stage escorted by Hon Frederick A Pike the dense audience broke into wild enthusiasm When Mr Pike arose to introduce them the enthusiasm was immense and vigorously manifested at intervals throughout the evening The gathering was the largest ever known in the Hall and hundreds were unable to gain admittance Many people came in from the neighboring towns and the distinguished speakers received the most hearty popular greeting Calais is wide awake and is going into the campaign in earnest

"E F Pillsbury protests altogether too much about that barrel of money First he protests that the barrel has not come and is not coming, secondly, he protests against bribery that he alleges is to be on the part of the Republicans Pillsbury seeks to cover up the gigantic use of Tilden corruption funds in this State, of which the evidences are many and undeniable, by these pompous protests "—Kennebec Journal

MILLS STARTING UP The Kennebec Journal says —"We are happy in being able to announce to our readers this morning that the Sprague cotton factory in this city will resume operation on Monday next September 4th No doubt the mills will keep in operation all winter, as there are bright prospects of cotton mills paying the coming season "

The N Y Tribune believes in fair play toward even Ben Butler It does not support him for Congress but it has the courage to say that his assertion that he broke up the British monopoly in the bunting trade by starting a factory in this country which brought down the price, is true, and that Butler deserves credit therefor

"We have got the State; we know how we got it; we know how to keep it, and we are going to keep it without regard to race numerical majority."—Meridian (Miss) Mercury

Pillsbury keeps right on printing the falsehood about Mr Blaine s private Secretary, regardless of its exposure "A lie well stuck too," etc, you know

"LIVE WITHIN YOUR INCOME "—SAMUEL J TILDEN —HE DID IT DURING THE WAR AND AFTER BY CHEATING THE GOVERNMENT OUT OF HIS TAX

Immense Mass Meeting at Bath.

Speeches by Gov Conner and Col. Ingersoll—Acres Covered by Earnest Republicans.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE WHIG & COURIER

BATH, Aug. 31 The Republicans had two flag raisings in this city this evening, one on the corner of Centre and Washington streets and one on Front street. With but a few hours notice a Hayes and Wheeler torchlight company of 100 men was formed. The Continentals from Auburn, Lewiston and Brunswick joined the Bath company, with the Lewiston, Brunswick and Bath Bands and a drum corps from Brunswick, who performed escort duty, enlivened the streets with music and five hundred torches. After which the procession marched to Post Office Square, where there were assembled from six to eight thousand people. Mayor Reed presided at the meeting, which was addressed by the great orator from the West, Col. Robert G Ingersoll and Gov. Connor. The speakers held the vast audience by their matchless eloquence until a late hour, when the meeting was closed, with cheers for Hayes and Wheeler and Gov. Connor and the speakers. No telegraphic report of the speeches would do justice to their eloquence and fervor. It was the grandest political meeting ever held in this vicinity and is an omen of the great victory which the Republicans will achieve on September 11th. J.

A number of Liberals, some of whom were in conference here last week, which opposed John Cochrane and his associates are to meet after the adjournment of the Convention and consult in regard to what action, if any, is necessary in view of the speeches of John Kelly and other leading Democrats in the convention.

The chairman said tickets had been issued to admit to the galleries of the Convention, which was not called to order till 10 40, when Kelly moved that the doors of the galleries be opened Carried and

A Scene of the Greatest Confusion

Seymour's Telegram Declining the Nomination

UTICA, Aug. 31. The following telegram, published in the Utica Herald this forenoon, was sent by Seymour to Judge Gray at 12 o'clock last night to the President of the Democratic Convention

I learn with surprise and regret that I have been nominated as a candidate for the office of Governor. While I am grateful for this mark of regard on part of the Convention, I am compelled by obstacles, which I cannot overcome, to decline the proffered honor. I shall do all in my power to promote the success of the Democratic ticket at the election, but I cannot be a candidate for any office.

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

Was the Telegram Suppressed!

This telegram was either not received or was not made public this morning A committee from the convention, consisting of S T. Fairchild and J. T. Spriggs, waited upon Gov Seymour and the declination of the night before was repeated. This committee started back for Saratoga.

LOUISIANA.

The late troubles in Monroe Parish—No further disturbance feared.

MONROE, La., Aug. 31. Several citizens (about twenty) went to the scene of the troubles last night and returned this morning, reporting all quiet. They saw only one squad of armed negroes, numbering fifteen, who fled at their approach. The negroes generally were not to be seen. Apprehensions of serious trouble have partially subsided, but a feeling of insecurity generally prevails. Measures purely pacific have been put in operation to prevent further outrages upon the peace of the parish

Shot while going to Dinner

To-day about 4 P. M., Dr. Dingraus, formerly Sheriff, and late tax collector of the parish, was killed while going to dinner at the residence of Chief Justice Luling, where he was living Dinkgraus had passed H G Dobson and J. Benort, who were near the road, loading a wagon. Returning in a few moments, Dinkgrans called Dobson aside and told him there was a man who had been lying around his premises three or four days and he feared the man was aiming to kill him. Dinkgraus asked Dobson to go with him about two hundred yards up the road, and the two moved off. As they approached the man he shot Dinkgraus, mounted his horse and fled. Dr. Dinkgraus had once been compelled, in self-defense, to kill a man named Wimberly, and the impression is that his death is the result of the old feud. The tragedy has created much feeling, but is clearly unconnected with politics The Sheriff has gone in pursuit of the murderer, but with no expectations of capture as the man had two hours' start.

THE TURCO-SERVIAN WAR.

Strengthening the Line of Defense.

LONDON, Aug 31 The correspondent of the Times at Belgrade telegraphs that within the last two or three days heavy guns have been sent to strengthen the second line of defense. If Alexinatz is taken I should not place much reliance on any defense the Servians might subsequently make, except in the way of mere bush fighting

Wound Themselves.

An examination by Russian, English and Servian surgeon, fully confirms the statement that a large number of the Servians wound themselves in order to avoid a battle. This practice has been made the subject of a strong report by the medical staff. It is stated that the Turks received a siege train from Nisch and in default of an armistice something very decisive must be expected at Alexinatz.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 31. A council of Ministers and great dignitaries of the Empire have proclaimed Abdul Hamid, Sultan, vice Murad, deposed.

Prince Milan and Nicholas anxious for Peace.

LONDON, Aug. 31. A despatch from Vienna says at a conference at Belgrade at which Prince Milan communicated his resolution in favor of peace to the Representatives of the Powers. Prince Wrede, the Austrian Representative, asked how far Prince Milan was authorized to represent the Prince of Montenegro. Prince Milan answered he had no direct written power, but from the communication he had with Prince Nicholas on the subject he thought he could speak for him also. This reply was only calculated to bring out prominently any informality on Montenegro's demand by proxy, which if not cleared up might have led to all sorts of misunderstandings. The point has, however, been cleared up since by Prince Nicholas asking the Powers directly to support the demand made by Prince Milan for both. This communication was made to Austria and Russia which alone are represented in Montenegro, with a request to communicate it to the other Powers. It seems that Prince Milan is as anxious to treat as Prince Nicholas, for on Tuesday he again urged the subject, expressing apprehension that Dervish Pasha was about to invade Montenegro and an anxiety to have this prevented by the influence of the Powers, as after the failure of the Servians farther operations would only lead to useless bloodshed and devastation. These considerations seem also to have induced him to order his commanders in Herzegovinia to act strictly on the defensive.

Egyptian and Arabian Reinforcements.

A despatch from Ragusa says that Dervish Pasha reached Podgoritza with a detachment of Egyptians and Arabians.—The Turkish forces at Podgoritza is now formidable It has 54 guns.

The Turks Suffer a Bad Defeat.

BELGRADE, Aug. 31. Official intelligence tonight announces that the Turks were defeated at all points on the right bank of Moravia and subsequently were taken on the flank and put to flight. Pursuit of the Turks.

BELGRADE, Aug. 31. An official despatch says Gen. Leschjanin accidently wounded himself in the head with a revolver. He will arrive to-morrow. The Servian corps under Rajevsky are reported to have pursued the Turks on the left of Morava as far as Amoor.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION

The Catholic Societies form a State Union—Meeting in Norombega.

Pursuant to previous arrangement a convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence and Benevolent Societies of the State was held with the St. John's Society of this city, yesterday.

The first exercise was at 8 o'clock, when the delegates attended Mass in the church with Father McSweeney as celebrant. They then adjourned to the basement. The convention was called to order by Father McSweeney who delivered a very pleasant address of welcome.

Wm A McGlinchy, of Calais, was then appointed chairman, and T. J. Lynch, of Augusta, Secretary

A committee on credentials was appointed, and reported as follows Six Societies represented. The St. John's of Bangor, by 18 delegates, St. Mary's of Bangor, by 10 delegates, Calais, 1; Togus, 5, Augusta, 3, Waterville, 1; whole number, 38.

The following committee on resolutions was next appointed: C. J. Ferry, J. E Crehan, Thomas Hoey, Patrick Callory, Michael Crowley and James Rogers.

The following committee on a constitution were then appointed: C J Ferry, J. J. Riordon, Edward Heffron, James Rogers J. H. Welsh, J E Crehan, Edward Hoey, Patrick Callory and W. A McGlinchy. The committee reported a constitution which was adopted by the convention

The following are the officers of the Union as elected Father McSweeney, President, Patrick Kearns of Bangor, Thomas Malloy of Togus, and W A McGlinchy of Calais, Vice-Presidents, C J. Ferry, Bangor, Secretary, E Conners, Bangor, Treasurer, Edward Hoey, Togus, Sergeant-at-Arms.

It was voted to hold the next meeting at Togus, Oct. 10th, the anniversary of Father Matthew's birthday.

In the evening the societies and delegates proceeded to Norombega Hall, where an enthusiastic temperance meeting was held

Edward Conners called the meeting to order and introduced Father Murphy, who spoke for a few moments, expressing the utmost sympathy with the cause and his pleasure at seeing the delegates who had come together to organize against intemperance. Father Murphy's remarks were brief, but adapted to the occasion, and the reception of them indicated the hold he has upon the affections of the young Irish people of our city

Father McSweeney was next introduced and spoke more at length, his address embracing a history of the Society, which has not a temporary zeal and enthusiasm, but substantial, well founded and wide spread. He gave an eloquent portrayal of the seductive and destructive influences of intemperance, the wretchedness and misery it entails upon those who are lead by it. He urged sincerity in the temperance cause, earnest practical work, the augmentation of the numbers in the societies, and closed with congratulations that so many had been drawn together at this auspicious gathering

Patrick Callory, of Waterville, and Edward Hoey, of Togus, each made brief and appropriate remarks, after which the meeting adjourned. The procession of the Societies was reformed and to the inspiring strains of St John's Band a short march was made through the streets

The two Societies of this city are to be congratulated on the very successful meeting held under their auspices, and they have the hearty sympathy of all true temperance men in their earnest efforts in behalf of the great cause.

THE CAMPAIGN

HON. C W. SLACK AT ORRINGTON

The banner Republican town of this county is the beautiful little place of Orrington. It is up to the standard not only in politics, but in everything else It is one of the neatest and best villages in the State It was in this place that Hon C W Slack, of Boston, spoke last Tuesday evening, on the political issues of the day. The Town Hall was completely filled with a refined and intelligent audience Mr. Slack was the only speaker and was therefore uninterrupted, having all the time he wanted He spoke for upwards of two hours, and from the first to the last he held his audience as if by a magic spell. His speech was a masterly review of the political situation, reviewing the career of the Democratic candidate for President, and showing up the sham reformer in his true light A gentleman from this city who was present and who is a competent judge, says it was the ablest and most eloquent campaign speech that he has heard during the last two campaigns Mr. Slack is one of the few who excel with the pen and on the forum. This union of qualities is developed to a remarkable degree in the gentleman, and his speech of last Tuesday evening was equal to the best leaders that his pen furnishes the Commonwealth. The meeting was a remarkable success in every respect

YEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC. SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhea, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov 18, 1875

H R STEVENS, Esq

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful and for all complaints arising from an injure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine WM B HILL,

I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine Yours respectfully,
